KING CAROL WARNS SOVIET RUSSIA

SWEDEN ASKS EXPLANATION FROM RUSSIA

Protests Sinking of Ship in Gulf of Bothnia

By HAROLD PETERS
Copenhagen, Denmark, Jan. 6.—A vigorous demand by Sweden for Russia explain Russian submarine activity in the Gulf of Bothnia brought increased tension today in a situation which involves the relations of the two nations with Communist Russia and Nazi Germany.

Sweden acted promptly after the sinking of a Swedish coastal steamer, the Fenris, by a submarine off the Swedish coast half way up the Gulf of Bothnia which lies between Sweden and Finland. Members of the crew, saved by lighthouse men, asserted firmly their conviction that the submarine was a Russian one.

Protest Sinking
The Swedish government, which has acted cautiously throughout the European and Russo-Finnish war in the interest of its neutrality, at once instructed Wilhelm Winter, its minister at Moscow, to protest the sinking and to demand the explanation of Russia's submarine policy.

The entrance to the Gulf of Bothnia at the Åland Islands has been mined heavily by both Sweden and Finland as a protection against Russian warships.

Nevertheless, the Fenris was shelled, set afire and sunk as it was carrying a 300-ton general cargo up the Swedish coast, on its regular run between Stockholm and Helsingfors. It was at the narrowest part of the gulf, noting its way through a snowstorm, when the submarine fired as it passed near Sjöboviken lighthouse off Örnsköldsvik, nearly at its destination. The crew took to boats as the shell fire continued. The German steamship Bolheim was shelled at almost the same spot Dec. 13 but escaped.

Scandinavian Anxiety
Evidence of Scandinavian anxiety were seen in two reports from Sweden today.

1.—That the Swedish defense staff intended to enlist and train a volunteer militia force, with a unit in each community throughout the country, to combat parachute troops landed from enemy aircraft. Russia developed the parachute troops.

2.—That Sweden would put 400 men to work next week on the three-mile job of cutting a one-mile canal across the little Falsterbo peninsula on the southwest Swedish coast. The canal would give further protection from German mines to Swedish ships going from the Baltic to the North Sea between Sweden and Denmark.

The increasing angry tone of the inspired German press in its warnings to the Scandinavian nations against sending or relaying aid to Finland brought only reports of

Claim Buyer Hides Mortgaged Auto

Wayne Aldridge, 28, who formerly resided at 845 East Locust street, today was a prisoner in the county jail charged with secreting mortgaged property.
He was arrested in Chicago yesterday by Sheriff Dan Bergan and Deputy Gene LaFontaine on a warrant issued at the request of R. J. Chamberlain, Kankakee auto dealer, who said Aldridge purchased an automobile several months ago and has failed to make payments.

Frigid Blast Journeys East; Snow in West

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Temperatures dropped toward the zero mark in the east today as the cold wave advanced another lap in its journey from the Rockies.
The frigid weather eased somewhat in the middle west after a day of zero and sub-zero temperatures but the mercury was still far below freezing.
Snow ranging from flurries to a 10-inch fall was reported from scattered parts of the east, middle west, southwest and Rocky mountain regions.
A snow storm raged in the southwest. The weather bureau at Albuquerque, N. M., reported the storm area extended from the continental divide in western New Mexico northward to Wichita, Kas., east to Oklahoma City, and southeast to Abilene, Texas.

New Justice

A few hours after he was nominated by President Roosevelt to the supreme court, Attorney General Frank Murphy stepped out in top hat and tail (above) to the annual White House reception for the judiciary.

Victim Aids in Capture of Auto Thief

Donald Taylor, 18, of 1181 East Maple street, was arrested Friday afternoon by Detective Don Bleau for theft of an auto which he had driven 900 miles in the past week.
The car was that of Milton Anderson of Donovan, stolen from the 400 block on East Court street New Year's eve. Anderson and his friend Woodrow Bloomquist of 194 North Harrison avenue, aided police in their capture of Taylor who later admitted the theft.

Taylor, who was arrested a year ago for taking the auto of Emory Netzel and wrecking it, will be given a hearing in county court Monday.

Police picked up the trail yesterday afternoon when Bloomquist, a former Donovan resident who is working in this city, came out of the post office and saw Anderson's car drive by with a stranger in it. He phoned Anderson at Donovan and learned that the latter hadn't recovered his car on which he carried no insurance.

Anderson came to Kankakee immediately and while police cruised in one section of the city, he and Bloomquist drove through another part of town. They located the car parked in the 200 block on East Chestnut street, with motor still warm. Detective Bleau watched from a nearby building and arrested Taylor when he returned to the car about 3 p. m.

Schneider Heads Alumni Gift Group

William A. Schneider of 949 South Chicago avenue today was appointed a member of the national committee of the Alumni Foundation of the University of Chicago and co-chairman of the foundation's committee in Kankakee.

Mr. Schneider shortly will appoint other members of his committee from the ranks of Chicago alumni in Kankakee. First objective is an alumni gift to be presented at the 50th anniversary celebration of the midway university in 1941. The foundation seeks to bring alumni in closer association with their alma mater.

Anniversary gifts will be used in offsetting the continued decline in rate of return on endowment. Chicago U. receives no tax fund support.

TWO SERIOUSLY HURT IN CRASH NEAR MANTENO

Man Unconscious
Since Time of Accident

Two men were seriously injured in a truck-aut collision at 9:30 o'clock Friday night at the intersection of highway 49 and the Manteno state hospital road.

Earl Angle, 40, of 453 Addison street, Elgin, engineer for the Elgin Water Softening company, is a patient in St. Mary hospital with a fractured leg and severe head injury. He has been unconscious since the crash.

Louis Diephendhorst, of 2018 South Indiana avenue, Chicago, driver of the truck, sustained a fractured collar bone. He was removed to his Chicago home. His dog, riding with him, was killed.

Failed to Stop
The Interstate System truck, loaded with general merchandise for St. Louis, was southbound on highway 49. Angle, driving west on the side road, failed to stop for the through highway and crashed into the left front section of the truck. Both vehicles overturned, the truck going over on the pavement and the auto landing in the front yard of Leo Boudreau at the far side of the slab.

Honeymoon Secret for Romeo-Juliet

North Conway, N. H., Jan. 6.—(AP)—The Romeo-Juliet romance of Eileen Herrick and George Lowther, which blossomed from habeas corpus writs to games of hide-and-seek—but always under the frown of Eileen's parents—blossomed today into a honeymoon as secret as their courtship was public.

Eileen, pretty, 20-year-old brunette socialite, and her 30-year-old insurance salesman swain were married here yesterday after a mystery cloaked trip by auto, train and plane from New York City, where she had eluded her objecting mother and father by taking her dog out for a walk.

Immediately, they hid from the public—moving into a tiny honeymoon cottage, but spending their first evening of married life last night at the nearby eastern slopes inn where champagne had started their wedding breakfast yesterday.

Eileen's parents—Walter Herrick, former New York City park commissioner, and Mrs. Herrick—forgave her for the marriage, but they were unrelenting toward the handsome bridegroom.

They said the bride always would be welcome under the swank parental roof—but not the man who had brought them into court twice via the habeas corpus writs—route, compelling presentation of Eileen who, Lowther said, was being hidden against her will.

Paxton Father and His Son Held in Jail

Waukegan, Jan. 6.—(RN Special)—Olen J. Olsen, 62, and his son James, 25, both of Paxton, were held in the county jail here today awaiting trial.
They were arrested last night by Sheriff Guy Redman after a car driven by the older Olsen struck the automobile of A. B. Schofield of Paxton on highway 45 three miles south of Loda. Schofield was to appear against them today.

Hearing Jan. 12th For Trio At Manteno

Preliminary hearings in the prosecution arising from the Manteno state hospital typhoid epidemic have been continued until Jan. 12.

At that time Circuit Judge Roscoe C. South of Waukegan will hear motions to quash malfeasance charges against Archie L. Bowen, director of the state welfare department; Dr. Ralph Hinton, suspended managing officer of the hospital, and Mrs. Lillian Williams, dietitian.

He will also hear motions to have the trial of these persons held in another county.

The hearings were set for yesterday by Attorney John A. Mayhew, representing the three defendants, pleaded he was not yet ready.

No Case Ready for Jury Next Monday

A circuit court petit jury reports Monday morning at 10 o'clock to Judge Luther B. Bratton but as yet a case has not been set for its attention.

The trial of Walter A. Guertin of St. Anne, indicted in connection with the closing of the St. Anne currency exchange, had been set for that date but has been postponed until Jan. 22.

Open Skating at Bird Park Quarry

With the Bird park quarry covered with six inches of ice, Edward Gohlke, president of the park board, announced today that an area had been roped off for ice skating.

The rink was to be ready for skaters this afternoon. The roped section will be in the shallow end.

St. Patrick Scout Troop Praised by District Officer

"Troop 100 lives up to its number in sponsoring a 100 per cent scouting program," District Commissioner Edward Strasma told Boy Scouts and friends of St. Patrick church yesterday at their annual charter night ceremonies. Friday night, the church and school auditoriums.

Strasma referred to the three point program of cubbing, scouting and explorer scouting. This troop is the first in Rainbow council to operate all three units.

Ceremonies at the church were conducted by the Rev. Leonard McManamon. Twelve scouts received foot badges after renewing the scout oath before the altar. Two reels of pictures were shown by Scout Executive John Hundman of Joliet and Field Executive Gilbert Striegel of Kankakee.

Members of the club committee receiving membership cards included Cubmaster Harold Eiman; Assistants Francis Marcotte and George Somers; Den Mothers Mrs. A. Bertrand and Mrs. A. P. Mayer; Chairman M. L. Clancy, Frank May, J. L. Armstrong, Francis Ortmann and Orville Menard.
Scout committee members receiving commissions were E. F. Gerrity, H. J. Mackin, D. J. Howell, E. O. Arrington and Romy Hammes.
Mr. Striegel presented commissions to Scoutmaster Ray DeWeese and Assistant Scoutmaster Bernard DeWeese and Camille Riberdy. The Rev. T. E. Fitzpatrick talked on scouting, emphasizing the necessity for cooperation between the church and the scout organization in the promotion of the man of health and safety in the district. He presented seven ribbons of accomplishment to Scoutmaster DeWeese, Dan Mowen, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 104 presented Leo-pold Zullo with a five year service pin.

TRUNK SLAYER ADMITS CRIME; MOTHER-IN-LAW

Nagged All The Time
Because He Didn't
Have a Job

Chicago, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The old lady nagged me all the time because I didn't have a job. I hit her on the head with a hammer.

Thus, reported Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan, did Samuel De Lao explain the slaying of Mrs. Nellie Sharp, 65, whose body was found crammed in a trunk yesterday.

Sullivan said De Lao, who is 49, confessed the crime last night after eight hours of questioning.

De Lao said he was the husband of Mrs. Sharp's daughter, Cleota, 40. All three occupied the same flat and lived on Mrs. Sharp's earnings as a hotel maid. De Lao said he had been dismissed from a WPA job.

Killed During Quarrel
Sullivan said De Lao admitted killing the woman during a quarrel Thursday morning, placing the body in the trunk and hauling it to an alley a mile away at Wentworth avenue, and 35th street. He was assisted in removing the trunk by Natale Pintaro, a neighbor who apparently was unaware of its grisly contents.

The police said the daughter and De Lao came to a police station more than 12 hours after the slaying to report Mrs. Sharp missing. They were seized after investigators found bloodstains in their flat.

De Lao, a divorced husband of the victim and step-father of Cleota, told police he and Mrs. Sharp were married in Terre Haute, Ind., in 1913. Mrs. Sharp was born near Paris, Ill.

American Liner, Manhattan, Held by the British

New York, Jan. 6.—(AP)—British contraband authorities ordered the American liner Manhattan detained when she arrived at Gibraltar today on her first voyage in the New York-Naples-Genoa run.

Shipping officials in New York said the 24,280-ton vessel would be searched for contraband, a usual procedure at Gibraltar, which has disrupted sailing schedules of every American vessel passing through the straits.

The Manhattan, forced out of her regular trade with England, France, Germany and Ireland by the neutrality act, left New York December 30 with 128 passengers, 60 of them Americans.

New York, Jan. 6.—(AP)—British contraband authorities at Gibraltar have released the American freighter Executive and "13,000 feet of nickel tubing" seized December 21, the American Export lines said today.

Company officials in New York said they were somewhat mystified about the seizure of the nickel as the nearest thing they found in the ship's manifest to nickel tubing was a 14-pound parcel post package containing radio tubes.

The Executive left New York December 7 for Mediterranean ports.

Man Walking on 49 Hurt by Hit-Run Car

Raymond Luck, 39, of Joliet is a patient in St. Mary hospital with a fractured kneecap, head and eye injuries sustained last night on highway 49 near Monee where he apparently was struck by a hit and run driver.

Luck was found lying on the pavement near a bridge between Peotone and Monee about 2 o'clock this morning. Four Chicagoans enroute to Effingham stopped their car, picked him up and brought him to the city police station.

They were Forrest and Howard Shambhart and Clyde Holland of 714 Webster street, Dan Fehrenbacher of 2157 Seminary avenue, Chicago.

St. Anne Merchants Aid First 1940 Baby

An 11-pound son born at 10:15 o'clock Friday night to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DePauls of St. Anne was the first 1940 baby in that community.
The child will receive gifts donated by St. Anne businessmen.

Confesses to Trunk Murder

Internal Conflict is Cause of Shakeup in The British Cabinet

London, Jan. 6.—(AP)—New ministers took over the portfolios of war and information in the British cabinet today in a politically sensational shakeup reportedly designed to silence internal dissent in one department and press criticism of the other.

Leslie Hore-Belisha, ruddy, round secretary of state for war, who gained fame by brushing many cobwebs of tradition from the army hierarchy, was replaced last night by the conservative Oliver Stanley, president of the board of trade.

Sir John Reith, chairman of Imperial Airways, succeeded a fellow Scot, Lord MacMillan, as minister of information; and Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, an attorney and banker, was chosen to head the board of trade.

"He has not been getting on with the generals, and he goes," commented the London Daily Mail of Hore-Belisha's replacement, which the press generally protested.

Editorials called for explanation in a full-dress debate in the house of commons. Liberal and labor members of parliament also registered indignation over the change, and the opinion was that it merited "thorough investigation."

Hore-Belisha's policy of promoting younger officers over the heads of older ones was said to have contributed to his failure to get along with Lord Gort, head of the British expeditionary force in France and himself one of the youngest men whom Hore-Belisha had advanced to high position.

The 43-year-old minister's advocacy of a unified command on the western front under the French General Maurice Gustave Gamelin was reported to have received scant support from his officers. He was said to have encountered opposition of Air Minister Sir Kingsley Wood when he urged a single command for the air force and army in France.

Although these undercurrents never swept into the open, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was reported, in order to preserve peace in the government, to have asked Hore-Belisha to take Stanley's board of trade job, but Hore-Belisha declined. His letter of resignation said "for reasons I gave you verbally," he could not accept another office.

Issues Statement
Hore-Belisha bid farewell to the war office today and issued a brief statement to his constituents, saying "I have no thought but that of winning the war."

The war ministry change overshadowed the others, for the proverbial man in the street regarded Hore-Belisha, who took office in 1937, as second only to Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty.

Legion to Honor Editors of County

Eleven editors of Kankakee county newspapers will be guests of Kankakee post of American Legion at "press night" at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Legion home here.

A. J. Footman of Chicago Heights, past state commander, will be the principal speaker. William C. Mundi, state adjutant, will be present. Each editor will receive a citation for publicity given the Legion activities in their respective papers. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided.

Cocos Island Treasure Hunters Claim Success

Los Angeles, Jan. 6.—(UP)—A California treasure hunting expedition seeking a $600,000 fortune in gold plate and jewels, stolen a century ago from the cathedral at Lima, Peru, reported partial success today.

In a cryptic message to Sidney Field, Costa Rican consul here, the curator of the Costa Rican National museum reported:

"Treasure has been located on the island."
He referred to Cocos Island off the coast of Central America for which the expedition set sail last November aboard the schooner Spindrift.

Apparently the treasure is buried so deeply that power equipment and winches are needed, Field said. "The Spindrift is on its way back, either to Panama or to California, for equipment," he said.

INVASION OF BESSARABIA MEANS FIGHT

Rumania Will Defend Borders by Force of Arms

Chisinau Rumania, Jan. 5.—(AP)—King Carol served a strong warning to Soviet Russia that Rumania will fight "as one living wall" if Russian armies attempt to invade Bessarabia.

Speaking after reviewing a huge parade of troops, planes and tanks at Chisinau (Kishinev), capital of Bessarabia, 12 miles from the Russian border, the king insisted Bessarabia "will always remain Rumanian by the force of our arms."

Ready to Defend Borders
General George Argescu, commander of the third army corps, told the crowd which assembled at the governor's palace to hear the king that the "whole army from the first man to the last is ready to defend the eastern border."

Russian, Ukrainian and German minority leaders of Bessarabia—which was Russian until the world war settlement—publicly swore allegiance to themselves and their followers to King Carol and Rumania. Russia never has recognized Rumanian sovereignty over Bessarabia.

"We pledge our lives for our beloved Rumanian fatherland," they declared.

As he reviewed the troops, King Carol was flanked by Premier George Tatarescu, Crown Prince Mihail and the ministers of war, navy and air.

Troops Prepared
The king's brief speech followed a short declaration by Tatarescu at Constanta, Black Sea port, on January 1.

Rumania was reported to have moved most of her troops out of Bessarabia a few months ago, with the semi-official explanation that the province was impossible to defend. If it were invaded, Rumania indicated at the time, the Rumanian army would abandon it and make a real stand along the river Pruth.

However, authoritative sources have admitted that since Finland's successful resistance against the Red army, the government has moved troops back into the province and expressed greater confidence in Rumania's ability to defend herself in case of a Russian invasion.

Twenty thousand peasants from all parts of Bessarabia wildly cheered the king's speech.

Accompanied by Son
Crown Prince Michael accompanied the king. High military and civil authorities also were present at the broadcast. They included Minister George Tatarescu and the ministers of national defense, armaments, propaganda, and the minister of air and marine.

The official purpose of King Carol's visit to Bessarabia was to inspect military units in the province stationed on a war footing for three months.

Arrest Janitor for Theft of $32

Walter Kemmer, 32, former janitor at the Peter-Zelonka tavern on highway 49 north of Kankakee, is under arrest for robbery.

The warrant was issued at the request of Zelinka, who claims Kemmer stole $32 from his living quarters at the establishment.

The arrest was in Chicago yesterday by Sheriff Dan Bergan and Deputy Gene LaFontaine.

LANE SISTERS "FOUR WIVES" AT PARAMOUNT

Complete Cast of Original Hits
Intact

"Four Wives," sequel to last year's "Four Daughters," will have its local debut Sunday at the Paramount theater. "Four Wives," in which Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola Lane, and Gale Page play the title roles, features the same cast as "Four Daughters," including John Garfield, who died in the original story. He returns in vision form in the new picture.

Others in the original family portrait who are prominent in "Four Wives" are Jeffrey Lynn, Claude Rains, May Robson, Frank McHugh, Dick Foran and Vera Lewis, the gossip "gate-swing" of "Four Daughters."

There's a new and very delightful addition to the family, too. Eddie Albert, the young comedy star of "Brother Rat," plays the young doctor for whom Rosemary Lane successfully sets her wedding bonnet in the film. Rosemary, you will remember, is the only one of the four daughters who didn't "get her man" in the earlier picture. Also added to the cast is Henry O'Neill, in the role of Albert's father.

Still other additions to the family tree are four girl babies. First of these to make her appearance in the film is the year-old child which is adopted by Lola Lane and Frank McHugh in the story. Then Priscilla gives birth to a girl baby, and Lola caps that by having twin girls.

"Four Wives" takes up the story of the Lane family where "Four Daughters" left off. The two oldest daughters are already married, Priscilla, the youngest, widowed in the earlier film, is about to marry her first love, played by Jeffrey Lynn, when she learns that she's to have a baby by her dead husband. The fourth girl, Rosemary, puts on a matrimonial campaign, as mentioned above, with the help of all her sisters.
